HAVING done nothing but filibuster during the regular session, the legislature is now talking about an extra session and doing their work.

The fellow who has anything to sell does not complain of the high price he is asking; but when he buys anything he kicks at the price he has to pay.

The congressional committee to whom was referred the advisability of presenting Commander Peary with a gold medal for reaching the North Pole, turned down a committee from the National Geographical society and told them more substantial proofs would have to be shown before any action would be taken.

A PETITION is in circulation in Pennsylvania asking the legislature to establish a closed season for muskrats. The reason for this is found in the fact that in Pennsylvania and Maryland the flesh of the muskrat is esteemed as highly by epicures as the flesh of the 'possum is esteemed in the south. Instead of hunting for rat hides the marsh sportsmen are now after food that brings a good price in the markets.

THE Winchester Democrat, one of the best semi-weekly publications in Kentucky, changed hands March 1. Messrs. Biehn & Donovan, who have had control for the past 20 years, sold out to Tim Needham, formerly of the Williamson Courier, and Charles B. Nelson, a native of Winchester, and for several years he was connected with the Democrat, but more recently has been in the government printing office at Washington, D. C.

THE first of the three prison bills, the indeterminate sentence act, has passed both Houses of the General Assembly by decisive majorities, the vote in the Senate being 27 to 5 and in the House 58 to 19. Under the indeterminate sentence law, the jury decides the question of guilt or innocence in all felony cases, except such as call for life imprisonment or capital punishment, and the court imposes the penalty in exact compliance with the law as it appears on the statute books.

BEACH HARGIS is now an inmate of the Frankfort penitentiary, clothed in gray uniform and wearing a gray cap. He was delivered there Monday by a deputy sheriff of Estill county and has entered upon his life term of imprisonment for the murder of his father, Judge James Hargis. The Court of Appeals last fall upheld the finding of the Irvine Circuit court and many believed that he at once entered the penitentiary to serve his term of life imprisonment. The Court of Appeals issued a mandate the latter part of last week ordering him to enter upon his sentence and its order was obeyed without delay. Floyd and John Day, uncles of the prisoner, offered any amount of bond and to pay for all the guards necessary if the officers conveying him to prison would go by way of Jackson so his grandmother and mother could see him, but the Estill officials declined all overtures and took him straight through. The prisoner seemed quite cheerful and thinks he will some time be pardoned.

WHILE the March winds are blowing don't grumble, they are blowing out the winter and blowing in the spring.

H. G. A. Notes.

The U. D. society gave their weekly program Monday night. Reports show that it was good.

Charley Seale, who enrolled in school a few days ago, had to return home on account of health.

We are sorry to say that Miss Hines, whom we spoke of in the last issue, has not returned for some reason.

Sigel Estep left for West Virginia one day last week, where he will make his future home. He leaves many friends at this place.

Leonard Nickell, of Daysboro, was visiting the Sarah K. Yancey Home last Sunday. It seems that the attraction is one of our girls.

Otis Kash visited home folks Saturday and Sunday, but we guess there was something a little more attractive than home folks.

Ben Davis, Claib Cecil and Bruce McGuire left for home Saturday. Bruce will not return as he happened to the misfortune of getting his ankle thrown out of place.

Quite a number from this place took in the meeting at Daysboro Sunday. Among them were Emma and Mae Nickell, Rhilda Wilson, Bessie Hollon, Joseph Estep, Leonard Stamper, Troy Arnett and Stanley Swango.

Two joined the church Sunday and were baptized Monday afternoon. May peace, joy and happiness attend them, and may they be of great service to Him who said, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me."

The writer wishes to say that he enjoyed reading Bro. Derthick's letter to the editor in last week's issue of THE HERALD. Also wish to say for the students of Hazel Green Academy that they have not forgotten him and his dearly beloved wife, and that we are not in any way tired of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel. Furthermore, that the school is one of the best in its history, and is still growing. The enrollment for the winter term reached 330. Again we wish to thank him for the work he did here, and may he still hold to the grand work in which he is engaged. J. S. T.

M. W. Jones, having sold his farm and decided to go west, will have a public sale of all his personal effects, consisting of live stock, farm implements, household goods, provisions, etc., next Saturday, 12th inst. Jolly John Pieratt will cry the sale and if you want fun or good bargains don't fail to attend.

R. A. Childers, formerly of Maytown, has bought a farm of 120 acres from Mat T. Hackney, near Jeffersonville, in Montgomery county, the price paid being $5,000 cash. He moved there last week with his family.

When the people of this section awoke this morning they found that Old Mother Earth had spread over herself a mantle of white, to the depth of about an inch, and still it is snowing.

If the old adage turns out to be true this will be a year of plenty.

Pertinent Points in the Thatcher Prison Report.

For ten years the two prisons have been a source of loss to the state.

The loss on both will aggregate $291,422.89.

Accounts never have been kept adequately or accurately.

Guards under Warden Lillard were improperly paid and received compensation from prison contractors improperly.

Food supplied by Warden Lillard was unsatisfactory.

Warden Lillard divided profits with a prisoner, who discounted orders of fellow prisoners.

There has been an excess of corporal punishment at Frankfort except under Chinn.

Prisoners have been whipped with unnecessary severity.

Whipping straps have been sufficiently heavy to inflict severe punishment.

Negroes are whipped on bare skin; whites over an undershirt.

A few women have received corporal punishment at Frankfort.

Whipping at Frankfort annually average 541; an average of 9,860 lashes.

Warden Chinn was imbued with a high spirit of integrity.

The Hoge-Montgomery Company contractors, improperly paid Guard Mat Madigan a salary of $25 per month for four months.

Commissioners unwisely continued Madigan in the contract shop and in allowing him to represent the Warden at the administration of corporal punishment.

Contract labor system should be abolished.

Campaign assessments at the penitentiaries have averaged $4,500 per year and have been turned over to the Democratic Committee.

The assessments in 1909 were diverted by Prison Commissioners Brown and McCutchen to the legislative races for the benefit of the Commissioners, in their campaigns for re-election.

The Hoge-Montgomery Company, prison contractors, have contributed liberally to the Democratic campaign fund.

Recommendations of legislators control appointments to prison positions.

Commission Eli Brown has received between $1,200 and $1,500 as fees for representing Armour & Co., who furnish prison supplies. —Louisville Herald.

Never Gambled or Dissipated.

Hopkinsville, Ky.—Forty years ago John T. Courtney, then a young man and a favorite in the community, disappeared from Hopkinsville. He had considerable property and was a member of a prominent Christian county family. Nothing was heard of him until a few days since when a letter from J. L. Yarborough, of Peggs, Oklahoma, to Postmaster Breathitt announced the death of Courtney on January 30, 1910. The writer said he found the following letter in his grip:

"On the road, Oklahoma, Oct. 25, 1909—Realizing there is no longer any hope for my recovery, I thought I might as well write a statement in case my body should be found by the roadside. I know I am growing weaker and weaker, and am able to pass at any time. My name is John Turner Courtney, and I was born in Hopkinsville, Christian county, Ky., in the year 1843, November 13. I am single, never having been married. If my body should be found by the roadside, bury me as I am; no hair cutting or shaving. Bury me in the clothing that I wear every day and place my body in a cheap box. I have been industrious and economical in life and desire it practiced to the end. I have never dissipated nor gambled. Respectfully,

"J. T. COURTNEY."

Courtney leaves a brother and sister, and many relatives in good circumstances here. No one has ever known why he left home.

Jake Patrick Dead.

Jake B. Patrick, the well known gauger, died at the Ripley distillery, four miles east of Lawrenceburg, on the 25th of February. He had been in the revenue service a long time and was exceedingly popular. His remains were sent to Magoffin county, his native home, for interment. He was well known Hazel Green and vicinity, and while a staunch Republican he was always a great friend of THE HERALD. He was paralyzed some years since and this was probably the predisposing cause of his death. He had just been appointed U. S. deputy sheriff, with headquarters at Salyersville, succeeding his brother, Asbury Patrick, recently appointed U. S. Marshal for the Eastern District of Kentucky.

Wonderful Story of a Woman About a Great Kidney Remedy.

Branchland, W. Va.

May 10, 1909.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N.Y. Gentlemen—About one year ago I was taken to my bed with kidney trouble and remained for weeks an invalid. At times I suffered so badly and the pain was so intense, I had to scream. I gradually became worse and everything was done for me that was possible, but I did not get any better. I became so bad I could not sit up in bed and two doctors were called in, and after treating me for some time without helping me any, told me my only hope was to have an operation. An operation was performed, but soon after I became worse than ever and thought that the rest of my days would be spent in bed. Friends whom my husband had written to in Portsmouth, telling of my condition, advised him to get me Swamp Root. He bought one bottle and from the first I began to improve, and in two weeks I was able to leave the bed. I took one more bottle and was entirely cured and able to do my work around the house and have enjoyed good health to this day. Friends who knew of my condition, consider my cure remarkable, and I never hesitate to recommend it.

You have permission to publish as you desire.

Yours very truly,

MRS. D. S. WELLS.
